Learn about Plant Pathology at Feb. 22 nature program

GENEVA, IL — What's wrong with your maple tree? Why are there spots on your wildflowers? Who's eating the leaves on your shrubs? Find out the answers to these questions and more during this Feb. 22 Learn from the Experts program.

College of DuPage Instructor Donna Danielson will lead this discussion on diseases, insects and the challenges of growing plants outdoors. This nature program is on Wednesday, Feb. 22, from 7-9 p.m. at the Barbara Belding Lodge at Brewster Creek Forest Preserve, located at 6N921 Rte. 25, St. Charles.

Learn From the Experts programs are for ages 18 and above. Advance registration is required. Registration fee is $15 per person. Call 630-444-3190 or e-mail programs@kaneforest.com to register.

Learn from the Experts programs are taught by experts in their respective fields and offer in-depth learning opportunities about our local ecology. The programs are offered through a partnership with the Forest Preserve District of Kane County, St. Charles Park District and Geneva Park District.
