Search for Spring at your Kane County Forest Preserves

GENEVA, IL — Join naturalists from the Forest Preserve District of Kane County on a “Search for Spring,” where we’ll look under logs, peer into the treetops, and search along the trail.

We may discover wildflower shoots poking up through the leaves, or maybe we’ll see the first arrivals of migrating songbirds. Perhaps we’ll find the season’s first butterflies or hear the early songs of chorus frogs.

Four “Search for Spring!” dates are available. All ages are welcome to attend this free program on any or all of the following dates and locations:

- On Monday, March 28, from 2-3 p.m., we’ll explore Hampshire Forest Preserve at 44W780 Allen Rd., Hampshire.
- On Tuesday, March 29, from 10-11 a.m., we’ll wander through LeRoy Oakes Forest Preserve, located at 37W370 Dean St. in St. Charles.
- On Wednesday, March 30, from 2-3 p.m., we’ll hike Blackberry Maples Forest Preserve, at 43W375 Main St. in Elburn.
- And on Thursday, March 31, from 10-11 a.m., we’ll make our way through Tekakwitha Woods Forest Preserve, located at 35W076 Villa Marie Rd. in St. Charles.
