Forest Preserve hosts volunteer open house and orientation

GENEVA, IL — Become a volunteer with the Forest Preserve District of Kane County.

The District invites the public to an Open House to learn about our volunteer opportunities. The Open House is Saturday, June 18, from 9-11 a.m. at Forest Preserve District headquarters, 1996 S. Kirk Rd., Ste. 320, Geneva. The office is on the third floor of the Fox Valley Ice Arena.

Currently, the District needs volunteers for the Fabyan Windmill in Geneva as well as weekend hosts at Tekakwitha Woods Nature Center in St. Charles. The District has more than 20 exciting volunteer opportunities.

For those who apply for a volunteer position at the Open House, a Volunteer Orientation is scheduled directly afterward from 11 a.m. - noon. The Volunteer Orientation is designed to help new volunteers become acclimated to the District, its mission, the volunteer program, and the specifics of volunteer duties. Though the orientation is designed as training for new volunteers, those interested in signing-up to volunteer are also welcome.

“Volunteering for a healthier habitat and preserving area history is a great way to give back to your community and get some exercise in a beautiful setting,” says Volunteer Coordinator Robb Cleave. “Be inspired by nature and volunteer for your local preserves, today!”
