20-and 30-somethings invited on a “Wildflower Walk”

GENEVA, IL — Take a “Wildflower Walk,” through the woods May 3, during a Forest Preserve District of Kane County nature program for adults in their twenties and thirties.

Explore Johnson’s Mound Forest Preserve in Elburn at the height of spring wildflower season. During this naturalist-guided walk on Thursday, May 3, from 7-8 p.m., you’ll discover the diversity of native flora and learn about the ecology of the woods. We’ll include tips for identifying wildflowers, too.

Advance registration is required for this free program. To register, call 630-444-3190 or email programs@kaneforest.com.

Johnson’s Mound Forest Preserve is located at 41W600 Hughes Rd., Elburn.
